

CAPD Final Test

Name _____ Date _____

1. How many bag exchanges will you do each 24 hour day? _____
2. There should be ____ hours between each of your daytime exchanges.
3. How long should the nighttime exchange dwell? _____hours
4. Inspecting your new bag before doing an exchange is very important. What are the 6 things you should be checking?
 1. _____
 2. _____
 3. _____
 4. _____
 5. _____
 6. _____
5. Inspecting the bag that has just drained is also important. If fibrin is seen, what should you do?
6. The bag you just drained seems very cloudy. What should you do?
7. What are the proper steps to follow if your catheter becomes disconnected from the y set tubing?
8. During an exchange, you accidentally touch the end of the transfer set or the inside of a new sterile cap. What should you do?

9. For some reason, you are not draining well. What should you check first?

10. What are the signs of dehydration (too dry)?

10. What are the signs of volume overload (too much water)?

11. You are feeling dizzy and your blood pressure is low. What dextrose concentration should you use?

1.5%

2.5%

4.25%

12. What are the signs of an exit site infection?

13. What are the signs of peritonitis?

14. Do you feel you are ready to do CAPD at home? Yes No